DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's statement for reason for allowance

The following is an examiner's statement for allowance:

1. Claim 10-14 have been allowed.

As per claim 10, the prior art of record, Steele (U.S. PN: 5,867,510) teaches or discloses a method of decoding and processing messages in radio communication systems (see col. 1, lines 5-9). Steel in figure 1 discloses a communication system (100) includes a base station (102) and a mobile station (104) communicate through radio signals (see col. 2, lines 51-61) whereby the mobile station comprises a transmitter (returner) (134) for transmitting or returning transmission data (with an error data or non-error data) connected to a digital data processor (130) and a processor (132) comprising an error detector (174) and error corrector (176). However, the prior art taken singly or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest, or render a receiver that receives, via a downlink channel, position information indicating a position of an error bit; a checker that checks for one or more errors in the received position information; and a transmitter that transmits a received transmission unit to a base station apparatus, via an upper channel, in the event that an error is detected in the received transmission unit and a retransmission request for the position information to the base station apparatus, via the uplink channel, in the event that an error is detected in the received position information. Consequently, claim 1 is allowed over the prior art.

Claims 11-14, which is/are directly or indirectly dependent of claim 10 are also allowable over the prior art of record.
